Dear Parent/ Guardian

Your son has been selected to represent Holy Cross College Ryde at the Patrician formation day – Delany Day to be held at Delany College, Granville. Delany Day will take place on the Wednesday, 28 June at 10:00 am. The boys will return to school by 3:00 pm.

The purpose of this day is to strengthen the Patrician connection between our schools and to provide the opportunity for our current and future student leaders to network with each other.

Students will be transported to and from the venue by a Maxi Taxi with Ms Stephanie Llave, the teacher in charge of this activity. Lunch will be provided by the staff of Delany College.

The day itself will involve discussions on Patrician charism in the modern setting and how it can be enhanced at the respective Patrician schools by the leaders of each school.

Full school uniform is to be worn and students will depart from the College at 9:00 am.

It goes without saying that the College has a high expectation of good behavior, respect and participation on the day to make it a meaningful and worthwhile event.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Sean Craven
