Invitation to the Feast of the Holy Cross Mass 9.30am Thursday, 14 September 2017 Patrician Centenary Hall

Dear Parent/Caregiver,

On Thursday, 14 September, the College will be holding a special celebration to mark our feast day – The Feast of the Holy Cross. The day will start with Mass at 9.30am, followed by the presentation of community service awards. After this, students will have a shared lunch in their HCT class followed by “the Feast Day Festivities.” Students are to wear full College winter uniform for the Mass. They will be permitted to change into mufti for the activities after Mass with a gold coin donation to the Delany Foundation.

When wearing mufti students must wear appropriate clothing, no thongs or singlets permitted.

An invitation is extended to all parents and friends to join us for the Mass and presentation of awards at 9.30am. The theme of the Mass is “Servant Leadership” and in this spirit, it would be wonderful if you could join us on Thursday, 14 September.

Students will be dismissed at normal time of 2.25pm on the day.

If you have any queries regarding the shared lunch please speak with your son’s HCT teacher.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Phillip Stewart
PRINCIPAL
